

She walked off the van in Aiken like she owned the place. Supremely confident and classy. Equine Halle Berry! Has the goods to be a superstar. Strength and gorgeous balance in one neat package. Deep shoulder, kind eye, and stands 15.1 plus.

Few horses are as consistently brilliant as this filly's sire, Discreet Cat. Visually impressive with a powerful long stride, Discreet Cat went undefeated in six races at two and three while crisscrossing the globe for Sheikh Mohammed's powerful Godolphin Stable. He broke his maiden at Saratoga at two, then wintered in Dubai where he posted a 4-length allowance win prior to scoring an emphatic 6-length win in that country's rich UAE Derby-G2 over eventual Horse-of-the-Year Invasor. Back to the U.S., Discreet Cat showed his speed in spades with an 11-length romp in a seven-furlong allowance race at Saratoga (going the distance in a snappy 1:21 2/5), and then won Belmont's Jerome H-G2 by 10 1/4 lengths while conceding as many pounds to the runner-up. In his career defining moment, Discreet Cat took on older horses in the Cigar Mile-G1. Assigned top weight of 124 pounds, he was bumped at the start but recovered to take the lead, then pulled away in the stretch to win by an easy 3 1/4 lengths over a top field. His performance equaled Easy Goer's 11-year-old track record for a mile in 1:32 2/5 and earned him a rating equal to U.S. Champion 3-Year-Old Bernardini on the International Classifications. This filly is from Discreet Cat's first crop.

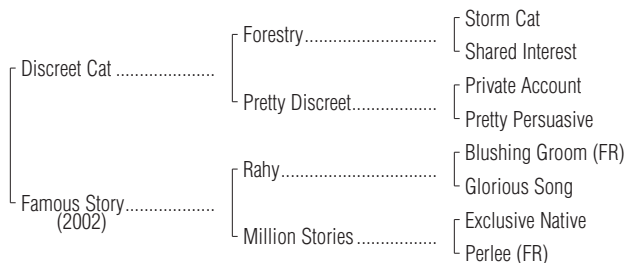

From a family of sound, resilient runners that is punctuated with blacktype winners, this filly is out of the young Rahy mare, Famous Story. Her first foal to race is 3-year-old Turwada, who broke his maiden earlier this year. Famous Story's dam is a full sister to the durable and consistent graded stakes winner Tubrok, who won or placed 25 times in 41 starts. Meanwhile, she is a half-sister to Sunshine for Life, winner of the Athenia H.-G3 at Belmont Park, and Nara, who is the dam of another two stakes winners. This filly's third dam, French Group winner Perlee, produced French 1000 Guineas-G1 winner and multiple stakes producer Pearl Bracelet as well as Misk, dam of Pennsylvania Derby-G2 winner Anak Nakal.

International sire sensation Giant's Causeway is a shining example of the powerful cross of Storm Cat line sires with mares by Rahy. Other Grade 1 stakes winners bred on similar lines include Champions Missed the Storm and Aljabr and Classic winner Footstepsinthesand.
